

Information on Medication

Daily Meds

<http://dailymed.nlm.nih.gov>

Provides information about marketed drugs, including FDA approved labels. For each drug there is a description, usage, precautions, adverse reactions, dosage, patient counseling information, and supplemental material.

Center for Drug Evaluation and Research, FDA

<http://www.fda.gov/cder/Offices/DDI/pathfinder.htm>

Topics include: drug approvals, clinical trials, generic drugs, drug safety, drug identification, and drug development.

Drugs@FDA

<http://www.accessdata.fda.gov/scripts/cder/drugsatfda/>

Overviews of FDA approved drugs include: Drug and FDA Application number, dosage form, strength, marketing status, and manufacturing company.

Ask the FDA about a medication.

Email: druginfo@cderr.fda.gov

NYS Attorney General's Office Prescription Drug Prices

<http://www.nyagr.org/>

Price comparison for 150 prescription drugs at various drug stores in NYS. The "Resources" tab provides links to Drug Prescription Assistance Programs.

Information on a Diagnosis

Medline Plus

<http://medlineplus.gov>

Look up a diagnosis for a description of the symptoms, treatments, coping methods, disease management, specific conditions, research, clinical trials, legal issues, and related organizations.

Information on Doctors in NYS

New York State Physician Profile

<http://www.nydoctorprofile.com>

Look up a doctor/psychiatrist in this database to find out his or her: education, practice information, any legal actions brought against the doctor, professional activities the doctor is involved in, and a personalized statement by the doctor.

Western NY Care Coordination Program

1099 Jay Street, Bldg J

Rochester, NY 14611-1153

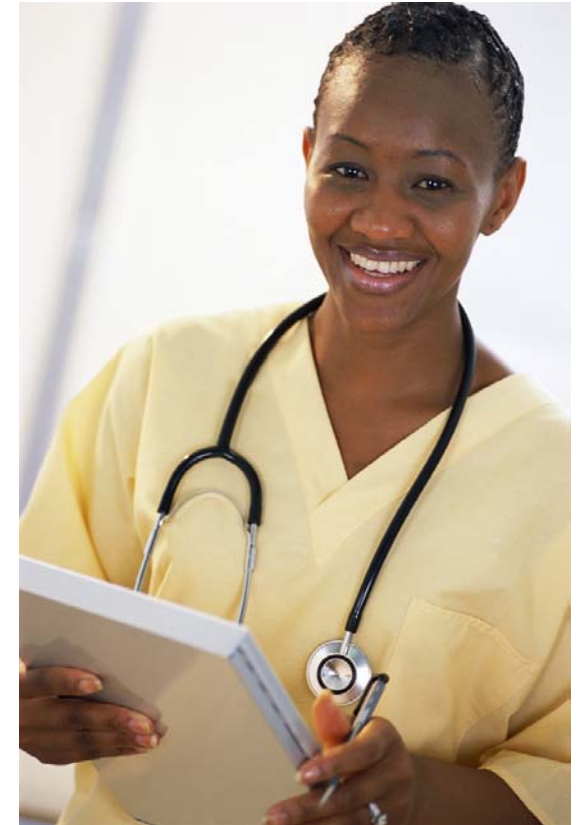

(585) 328-5190

www.carecoordination.org

RESEARCHING YOUR DIAGNOSIS & MEDICATION

for consumers & their families

MEDICAL LIBRARIES & LOCAL RESOURCES

Medical Librarians and credible websites provide accurate and timely medical information to supplement information received from health care providers.

It is important to ask a doctor any questions concerning a diagnosis and/or medication. These resources can help individuals ask informed questions to elicit the most comprehensive answers from their doctors.

Central New York

Health Sciences Library

SUNY Upstate Medical University
766 Irving Avenue
Syracuse, NY 13210

Reference Questions: (315) 464-4410
Reference Emails:

<http://www.upstate.edu/library/reference/refques.php>
askalibrarian@upstate.edu

Provides service to Onondaga County and the 19 surrounding counties.

Online Local Health Information

State University of New York
Upstate Medical University
Health Information

<http://www.upstate.edu/uh/healthinfo/>

Links to Health Connections, a free health and referral service of University Hospital; Health Events Calendar; Patient & Consumer topics, which includes local support groups.

Western New York

Kaleida Health Libraries

Aaron Health Sciences Library
Buffalo General Hospital
4th Floor, D Building
Buffalo, NY 14203

Reference Questions: (716) 859-2878

Reference Emails:

<http://library.kaleidahealth.org/requests/ReqRx.asp>

Provides service to Erie County.

Health Sciences Library

State University of New York at Buffalo
3435 Main Street

Buffalo, New York 14214-3002.

Reference Questions: (716) 829-3335

Provides service to any NYS resident, including Chautauqua and Genesee Counties.

Online Local Health Information

WNY Health Service Directory

<http://www.wnyhelpnet.org/>

Directory of Western New York medical, health care coverage, and senior and long term care services.

These libraries are for medical research only.

In case of medical emergency, call a doctor or 911.

Greater Rochester Area

The Wellness Information Center Werner Library

Rochester General Hospital
1425 Portland Avenue
Rochester, NY 14621-3095

Reference Questions: (585) 922-9355

Reference Emails:

<http://www.viahealth.org>

Click Departments & Services

Click Ask a Medical Librarian

Provides service to Monroe and Wyoming Counties, among others.

Online Local Health Information

Click on Health

<http://www.cliconhealth.org/>

Contact information for health agencies, hospitals, and support groups. Links to websites about prescriptions, paying for prescription medications, over-the-counter drugs, and health and wellness topics.

